

Please don't change the current Telephone Privacy Law. We were receiving so many telemarketing phone calls every day. I have received some as late as 9PM. My privacy is invaded when people buy and sell my telephone number and call my home to ask me if I want to buy something. I have a 9 month old baby now and all the calls we used to receive would really interrupt our lives.